

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

is the best family medicine you can have. A thorough course of treatment with it brings good red blood, brings the old color back to the lips, fills out the cheeks, and gives the glow of perfect health.

Perhaps you suffer from the enfeebling effect of a prolonged spell of winter weather. If so, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will vitalize your blood and give you renewed force, vim, and energy.

As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains no alcohol.

There are many imitations Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "AYER'S."

The Circle

Mrs. Alice L. Hutchinson gave an "Old Year supper" at her home on Beretania street Tuesday night which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Cards and music were in order until eleven-thirty, when the party partook of a sumptuous repast. Those who enjoyed watching the old year out and the new year in were Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Along, Mrs. Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Henshall, Mr. and Mrs. James W. W. Brewster, Mr. E. L. Hutchinson, Jr., and Mr. Kemke.

One of the attractive debutantes of the winter, who has already been formally introduced, is Miss Annie Douglas Graham, daughter of Mrs. Hubert Vos by a former marriage. Miss Graham has been much in Europe, and is an accomplished linguist. Her mother is the Hawaiian Princess Kaiulani, and when a young woman was one of the suite of the Queen of the Sandwich Islands, accompanying her to the jubilee of Queen Victoria. Miss Graham has been included at all the important dances thus far of the season.—N. Y. Herald, Dec. 15th, 1907.

The Dramatic Circle of the Kilohehuan Art League is rehearsing for a play to be presented some time next month.

W. D. Adams, manager of the Hawaiian Opera House, received a letter from Mr. Turner, manager of Maud Powell, the world renowned violinist, announcing her contemplated trip to Australia and asking Mr. Adams to arrange for one concert. This will be given at the Opera House under the management of Mr. Adams in March or April next. Miss Powell is said to be the equal of Marie Hall, who delighted the Honolulu audience, a few months ago.

Quite a large number of members of the Literary Circle of the Kilohehuan Art League gathered at the League's home at 19 o'clock this morning and listened to the first of the series of six lectures on Browning, by Mrs. L. L. McCandless, which are to be given each week at the same time and place. This is the first work of the Literary Circle this season, and much interest is manifested in the program which has been arranged, and which will carry the work well into the spring or summer.

The concert which is being rehearsed for at present by the Symphony Society for next month, is already being looked forward to with anticipation by music lovers. The work of the organization is too well known to escape attention whenever it deigns to come before the public.

Friends of Mrs. A. J. Derby will be sorry to learn of her illness on the Coast. It is considered serious, and Dr. Derby left on a cable message on the Honolulu on short notice.

A fair sized crowd attended the dance at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening. This dance had been announced as the regular "Alameda dance," but the non-arrival of the vessel from the Coast did not prevent the dance being given, and a very pleasant time was had. It is possible that another dance may be arranged during the stay of the Alameda in port by the Hotel management.

The members of the St. Louis Alumni welcomed the New Year with a dance given in the makai pavilion of the Alexander Young Hotel, a large number of the members and their friends attending. One of the Kaili quartet clubs furnished excellent music. Just before midnight souvenirs in the shape of fish horns, decorated with the red and blue of St. Louis, were distributed and on these merry oases were blown at the stroke of twelve.

The committee in charge of this dance was made up of James L. Holt, Paul J. Jarrett, Henry N. Clark and C. A. K. Hopkins, assisted by an auxiliary committee of C. H. Rose, J. A. Legros, M. K. Cook, Louis Berry, B. F. Hollinger and B. W. Houghtaling.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoogs and children arrived home on the Siberia this week from the Coast where they have been for the past nine months or more.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy and Miss Swanzy were arrivals on the Siberia from a visit to the Coast.

Mrs. C. H. Rice, of Kauai, is visiting in Honolulu.

G. F. Eckart, of the Painters' Experiment Station, and wife, returned in the Siberia from a trip to the mainland.

New Year's night at Englewood, the ladies of the Young Women's Christian Association entertained in a most delightful manner a large number of their friends. The decorations of green and red were very effective. A number of musical selections rendered by

NEW YORK, December 18.—Mrs. Russell Sage has returned to her town house, 632 Fifth avenue under an armed guard. For the first time her home is patrolled by a special guard, who keep off all persons except those having appointments with Mrs. Sage.

Mrs. Sage's widowhood has virtually made her a prisoner in her own home. Sought after by begging persons before her husband's death, the annoyance now amounts to a social plague.

Under one pretense or another, persons seeking money kept up a perpetual siege of the quiet country home at Lawrence, Long Island, where Mrs. Sage lived, so that it became unsafe for her to step outside her own door, except under the surveillance of a guard.

Since her husband's death Mrs. Sage has not appeared at any public meeting or social function.

While Mrs. Sage has already given away nearly $15,000,000 of the $75,000,000 her husband left to her and while she intends to dispose of this immense fortune before her death, her donations have been made almost entirely to those institutions with which she has had some personal or social affiliation in the past, particularly in the education of girls and assistance of women's colleagues and hospitals.

"It is certain," said a friend of Mrs. Sage, "that the remainder of her life will be in solitary confinement in her country or town home. Her existence is rendered miserable whenever she ventures outside of it. Were she to travel, it would be just the same. Persons watch her every movement and lie in wait for any possible opportunity to get a word with her, never seeming to realize how utterly hopeless their mission is. Mrs. Sage's heart or pocket book can never be reached in this highway fashion."

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wells, of Waluku, departed by the Siberia for the Orient where they will travel for some time.

Mrs. Herbert Winslow of Portland, Oregon, will arrive in the China on the 6th inst. on a visit to her parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Lyle, and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Graham and family returned Wednesday from a holiday vacation trip to Maui.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanneberg gave a dinner party at the Hawaiian Hotel on Thursday evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Potentbauer, Mr. and Mrs. Hagens, Mr. and Mrs. Du Roi, Mr. H. Hanneberg.

Mrs. Charles L. Rhodes' tea on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her young street home, was one of the most pleasant affairs of the week. A dainty luncheon was served the same fifty guests who were present. Among these were Mrs. Fanny Love, Mrs. James Wakefield, Mrs. F. W. Carter, Sister Albertina and Sister Beatrice, Miss Marsh, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Potwine, Mr. and Mrs. William Jonathan Cooper, Rev. and Mrs. Bliss, Miss Taggart, Mrs. James F. Morgan, Miss Morgan, Mr. Potwine, Miss Constance Restarick, Miss Stevens, Miss Soper, Miss Blanche Soper, Mrs. J. C. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Wolfenbarger, Miss Byington, Mrs. F. L. Hatch, Mrs. E. G. Keen, Miss Church, Mrs. Folsom, Rev. A. C. Hall, Mrs. Alexander Hobson, Miss Wills, Miss Sprinks, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Mathena, Mrs. Harry Culman, Mrs. Charles M. Cross, Miss Myra Tolan, Miss Blair and Miss Lucas.

Miss Lillian Byington, who has been spending some months in California, arrived home by the Siberia on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Emerson are contemplating a long trip abroad in the near future. They will rent their home here during their absence.

The marriage of Miss Julia Lawrence to Mr. Fred B. Damon, the announcement of whose engagement their friends several weeks ago, will be solemnized next Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Damon, on Thurston Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. August Spreckels have arrived from New York and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Spreckels at the home of the latter on Pacific avenue. It is some time since Mr. and Mrs. Spreckels have visited California and they are being delightedly welcomed by their many friends who will probably entertain extensively in their honor during their visit.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hedemann, wealthy Honolulu people, are in the city to pass the Christmas holidays with their daughter, who is a student in a private school.—Los Angeles Times.

The beautiful old home of the Cooke family on Beretania Avenue was very gay from four to six yesterday afternoon with hundreds of charming women and girls, in lovely gowns and hats, bidden there by Mrs. Charles M. Cooke and Miss Cooke to meet the pretty young bride of Richard Cooke, who was Miss Dagmar Sorenson. It was a most delightful reception. Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Jr., greeted everybody on the veranda on arrival, and from there they passed on to the drawing room where Mrs. Cooke received with her new daughter, Mrs. Richard Cooke, while Mrs. Sorenson was near by. Miss Alice Cooke and a bevy of her young friends, including Miss Beale Hopper, Miss Dorothy Hartwell, Miss Irene Fisher and the Misses Damon flitted about among the guests assisting in entertaining, while Mrs. Clarence Cooke, Mrs. Frederick Lowrey, Mrs. George Cooke and Miss Grace Cooke graciously helped to keep people moving toward the refreshment tables. The rooms were all tastefully decorated with plants and cut flowers. The chandeliers being festooned with malle and red carnation leis, while great bunches of poinsettia added much to the effectiveness of the color scheme. Mrs. Mackall sang three times during the afternoon most entrancingly, she has such a sweet bird-like voice. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Margaret Clarke, who is a valued addition to the Honolulu musical ranks. Although it was a very successful affair and among those present were Mrs. Walter Frear, Princess Kawananakoa, Mrs. James B. Castle, Mrs. Dr. Brinkerhoff, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. J. P. Cooke, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Harry Baldwin, Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. A. Lewis, Mrs. von Holt, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. S. B. Kingsbury, Mrs. Afong, Mrs. Albert Afong, Miss Paris, Mrs. Dole, Mrs. Philip Frear, Mrs. Spaulding, Miss Spaulding, Mrs. Henry Cooper, Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mrs. James Wakefield, Mrs. Hugo Frear, Mrs. Hopper, Miss Margaret Hopper, Mrs. W. E. Peterson, Mrs. Willard Brown, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. Vida Thrum, Mrs. W. A. Love, Miss Moore, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. R. D. Mead, Mrs. Henry Dicknell, Mrs. Swanzy, Mrs. Archie Young, Mrs. Berg, The Misses Soper, Miss Charlotte and Miss Florence Hall, Mrs. Faxon Bishop, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Green, Mrs. Fanny Love, Mrs. William H. Hoogs, Mrs. W. M. Graham, Mrs. von Hamm, Mrs. James Kennedy, Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Miss B. R. Young, Mrs. Frank L. Hoogs, Mrs. McStocker and the Misses McStocker, Mrs. James F. Morgan, Miss A. Morgan, Mrs. Francis Judd, Mrs. Angus, Mrs. Griffiths, Miss Eva Stevens, Miss Ada Rhodes, Mrs. McCandless and Miss McCandless, Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. McGrew, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mrs. Theodore Richards, Mrs. E. Low, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Humphris, Mrs. Hawes, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Whitney, Mrs. Will Whitney, Mrs. Selma Kinney, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Mrs. Lewers, Mrs. E. E. Paxton, Mrs. Oscar White, Mrs. Joseph Gilman, Mrs. John Drew and many others.

The wedding of Miss Cordella Carter to Mr. Charles Hartwell, whose engagement was announced some time ago, will take place on January 21.

Miss Mary Moore, a sister of Mrs. William A. Love, arrived on the Siberia for a visit in Honolulu.

Registered this week at the Hawaiian are Otto Wix from Lihue, Kauai; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baumgartner of San Francisco; Mrs. M. A. Jackson of San Francisco; Mr. Chas. D. Tustin of Burlington, England; Miss Ruth Tustin of Burlington, England.

Mrs. H. Penhallow and two children returned on the Siberia. While in town they were guests of the Clarence Cookes.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanzy and Miss Rosalind Swanzy returned from a several months visit abroad, during the week.

Miss Alma Leider, of Sydney, Australia, who has been the charming guest for the past several months of Miss Lillian Paty, on Nuuanu Avenue, will leave next Friday or Saturday on the Moana for her return home. She expects to stop for a short time in the Fiji Islands en route. Miss Leider has made many friends in Honolulu who will regret to see her leave.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown gave a delightful dinner party on Thursday evening at the Hawaiian to Prince and Princess Kawananakoa, H. F. Wichman, Mr. and Mrs. Sachs, Mr. and Mrs. M. Phillips.

The Commercial Club is rapidly becoming one of the most popular places in town. On New Year's eve the rooms were filled with a jolly crowd of well known people who spent the evening in playing bridge or dominoes, and on New Year's night the dining tables were taken by people who appreciated the special dinner served there and the change from home it afforded. Among those at dinner there

WILL ACCEPT LIPTON'S CUP

BROOKLYN YACHT CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING TO VOTE ACCEPTANCE OF CHALLENGE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A special meeting of the board of governors of the Brooklyn Yacht Club will be called for the purpose of formally accepting the offer of Sir Thomas Lipton to a $1000 cup for an ocean yacht race. The race will not be to Bermuda as the members of the Brooklyn club think this would be conflicting with the Corinthian Yacht Club, which already has on its program a race to that place. An open sea course, which maybe from Newport to Cape May and thence to the club's house in Gravesend bay, will be proposed. The distance for the race will be approximately 500 miles. The international cup committee of the Brooklyn Yacht Club has issued preliminary rules for the international race for the cup which it has offered.

All nations will be invited to enter yachts. The conditions of the challenge for the cup are as follows: That the race shall be open to any yacht enrolled in a foreign yacht club of not more than 80 feet waterline, if a schooner, or of not more than 65 feet waterline, if a sloop.

That the challenging yacht must proceed to the place of competition on her own bottom and under her own sail.

That the race shall be started from the Sandy Hook lightship and shall be of not less than 30 miles and not more than 40 miles in length on the open sea.

The other conditions have been drawn up, but are held subject to revision at another meeting of the cup committee to be held today.

HE WILL NOT. Will Col. Bryan follow an illustrious example?—New York Herald.

were Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Oat, Mr. and Mrs. Lansing, Mrs. Overend, Mr. and Mrs. Craig and the Misses Craig, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Riggs, Judge and Mrs. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoogs and daughters, Mrs. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crane, Ezra Crane, Mrs. Cantin, Miss Cantin and Mr. and Mrs. James Bergstrom.

On Tuesday, December 31st, Mrs. H. Hanneberg gave a delightful luncheon at the Royal Hawaiian, those present were: Mrs. Hagens, Mrs. H. Lewis, Mrs. J. O. Carter, Mrs. A. McIntyre, Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mrs. Captain Fuller, Mrs. P. Neuman, Mrs. C. A. Brown, Miss Walker, Mrs. M. Phillips, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett.

Bishop and Mrs. Henry B. Restarick arrived home on the Siberia on Tuesday after several months on the mainland, during which time they visited Richmond, Va., where they attended the Convocation of the Episcopal Church.

Mrs. J. N. S. Williams, the wife of the superintendent of the Kahului railroad, arrived Wednesday on the Claudine, and is visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hodson, of Wailiki, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida Robena Hodson, to Mr. Harry M. Mix of Fresno, Cal.

The lawn party and reception given by Mrs. Campbell Parker at her Wailiki residence on New Year's day in honor of her daughter Princess Kawananakoa, was the prettiest afternoon function that has been given for a long time. The grounds were very prettily decorated with the flags of all nations, the American and Hawaiian flags predominating. A large tent was erected on the lawn to be used in case of rain, but it was unnecessary as the weather was all that could be asked for. Small tables were scattered over the lawn beneath the trees where tea, punch, ices and salads were served to the guests. Ernest Kaaf's quintette boys played popular music throughout the afternoon, which was enjoyed by all present.

The handsome toilettes worn by the guests in the soft afternoon light presented a very pretty picture. Mrs. Parker wore a very handsome gown of black satin, while the Princess looked strikingly handsome in a black lace New York creation. Mrs. Dr. Grossman and her mother, Mrs. Sheppard, wore very becoming white lace gowns with hats to match. Mrs. Dr. Murray looked exceptionally well in a light Alice blue frock with hat to match. Miss Nanny Winston, in a black and white silk Princess gown, looked very young and pretty. One hundred and seventy-five invitations had been sent

SPORT NOTES

The crack baseball team of the 26th Infantry stationed at Camp Shafter were supposed to have played on New Year's day at Aala Park with a picked team captained by Ayau, the shortstop of the Chinese Alohas, but for some reason the rest of his team could not be found, and as a result the soldier boys, after some time at practice, decided to go home, as none of the team put in an appearance. Ayau, however, appeared on the field and informed the soldier boys that he would get all players together, but for reasons unknown he never returned.

The soldier team are very much worked up over the matter, and hereafter they will be more certain that a game is going to be played before they appear on the field.

The chances of the White Sox coming here for their training are very small, and unless better transportation can be arranged the baseball fans of Honolulu will be unable to see the champion team in action. They have already made arrangements for a series of exhibition games to be played in San Francisco some time in March, and as the league season opens in April it would mean that the team would have to get here some time this month to keep all their engagements.

The gift of $250 to the yacht fund by the American-Hawaiian S. S. Company has caused the local agents of the Pacific Mail Co. to sit up and take notice, and a donation from Harri-man's Company will probably follow in a short time.

The tennis tournament which was to have been continued yesterday on the Pacific Club courts for the J. P. Cooke trophy, has been postponed until next week.

The championship game that was to have been played tomorrow on the League grounds between the Kaalas and the Chinese A. C. has been postponed on account of the officers of the Kalaianale League failing to name it a legal game in the championship series. However a game will be arranged in the near future for the benefit of the yacht fund.

The novelty golf tournament which will be held tomorrow on the Country Club links will start with probably the largest entry list ever known at the club. The tournament is open to every golf player in the islands regardless of club membership. Three prizes will be given and from all accounts they are the best ever offered by the club. The play will start promptly at 10 o'clock.
